Next steps are thank you notes, wh Jan has printed. Include Hitching Post next time (oversight this year). Apology to Lindsay & Grumpy for late time-change. Next time, we'll stick to the PRINTED SCHEDULE, no matter what.

Susan: No updates on map. Question: Does Ricky Rains own a small piece of property near the pavilion? Brenda will call and ask, and also check on Turkey Shoot for the spring.

Schedule Remaining:

Workdays - Wednesday Nov 9th, Wednesday January 18th, Wednesday February 8th
Christian Cemetery workday on Nov 7th?

Misc: Must be a SCTA member to post ads in our newsletter.

Suggested to move different types of membership to different email categories. Suggested to give Ridgetop members an "email" type membership for info sharing.

Encourage membership (early) in the next newsletter.

Jan: Paint the annex, remove insulation, fan install, winterize bathroom, sell old water heater. Paul will check for rust.

Max: Granite rip-rap available cheap in Oneida, Paul will check on costs. Need a thank you to Jerry & Debbie Lewis. Lamar is OUT as grass cutter in 2017. Max will get 2-3 quotes for Cumberland and Evergreen Trail work. Bid as a package. Evergreen owners may be backing out of allowing us to cut across their path. We'll know more after their Thanksgiving visit. Permanent work days for 2017 may be set at 1st and 3rd Tuesdays, with only one in Jan and Feb, two in March.
